

Anders Mediaas Wagle

Principal Associate

T: +47 41 51 74 75

E: a.wagle@haavind.no

Areas of expertise

Anders Mediaas Wagle is a principal associate in our business area Industry, Media & Technology, and is a member of the Intellectual Property practice group.

Practice

Anders Mediaas Wagle is specialized within copyright, media law and broadcasting. He also has broad experience within IT law, contracts and due diligence processes.

For the last years, Anders Mediaas Wagle has primarily worked with:

- Copyright, including copyright clearance, infringement and licenses
- Broadcasting and media law, including distribution, new services such as OTT, advertising and sponsorship etc
- Gaming law, including Norwegian and foreign services
- Internet related matters, including search engines and other Internet services

Anders Mediaas Wagle has litigated several cases within the field IPR / new technology.

Background

- Law firm Haavind AS (2000-)
- Law degree, University of Oslo (2000)
- Scientific Research Assistant, Norwegian Research Center for Computers and Law, University of Oslo (1995-1997)
- Basic course programming, University of Oslo (1993)
- Mathematical methods, University of Oslo (1992)

Other

Anders Mediaas Wagle is the author of the book "Copyright in a digital world" (No: "Opphavsrett i en digital verden"), Cappelen Akademiske Forlag, Oslo 1997. The book is required reading in the optional subject Information Law at the faculty of law, University of Oslo, and is written together with Magnus Ødegaard jr.

Since 1996, Anders Mediaas Wagle has been employed as speaker at seminars and conferences, especially related to copyright and new technology. Wagle is a member of the Norwegian Copyright Association.