

Marianne H. Dragsten

Associated partner, Member of the Norwegian Bar Association

T: +47 93 21 97 59

E: m.dragsten@haavind.no

Areas of expertise

Dragsten has her main practice within the business area Building, Construction and Offshore. She heads the practice group for Public Procurement, Competition Law and EEA Law.

Practice

Dragsten's main field of work is public procurement. She has broad-based experience of practical dealings with the rules and regulations for public procurement, from the preparatory stage through the holding of the competition and entry into contracts with suppliers. Dragsten has held a number of major competitions according to the public procurement regulations.

Dragsten has also litigated a number of public procurement cases in court, and for a period was a member of the secretariat of the Public Procurement Review Board. She has also conducted a number of cases for the Office of the Attorney General, Civil Affairs.

She has extensive experience as a lecturer on public procurement issues.

Background

Advokatfirmaet Haavind AS (2000-)
Office of the Attorney General, Civil Affairs (2006)
Adviser on the Public Procurement Review Board (2005)
Deputy judge, Drammen District Court (2003-2004)
Degree in Jurisprudence, University of Oslo (2000)

Other

Dragsten is the co-author of an annotated edition of the Public Procurement Regulations (Norwegian text: Universitetsforlaget 2005) and author of Håndbok i offentlige anskaffelser [Public procurement manual], (Norwegian text: Universitetsforlaget 2006)