

Aksel S. Tannum

Associated Partner

T: +47 900 22 765

E: a.tannum@haavind.no

Areas of expertise

Aksel S. Tannum is an associated partner in the business area Energy and Natural Resources, and is a member of the practice group Energy law. He is also a member of the practice groups Petroleum law, Expropriation law and Litigation.

Practice

The main field of work for Aksel Tannum is energy related questions both concerning negotiations and contracting, and also questions regarding the relationship between energy companies, the relationship between such companies and the public authorities, and questions related to the property owners. He is also experienced with questions related to offshore deliveries and questions regarding cession of property and expropriation/assessment connected to the establishment of different types of infrastructure.

Aksel Tannum regularly litigates cases for the courts and has experience in both appraisal proceedings and larger court cases. He is also a lecturer within energy related issues.

Legal 500 (2011): "Aksel S. Tannum is an energy market specialist with enviable industry knowledge"

Chambers (2011): "Aksel S. Tannum is definitely a practitioner to watch"

Background

Advokatfirmaet Haavind (2005-)

Adviser at the legal department, Ministry of Petroleum and Energy (2000-2005)

Degree in Jurisprudence, University of Bergen (2000)

Other

Aksel Tannum was Legal secretary for the Law Commission on Right of Reversion (NOU 2004: 26 Hjemfall)