

Espen Nordbø

Partner, advokat

T: +47 4899 0055

E: e.nordbo@haavind.no

Areas of expertise

Espen Nordbø is partner of the business area Tax.

Practice

Espen Nordbø has particular knowledge of corporate tax and international tax. For the last 14 years he has primarily worked with:

- Tax issues related to M&A
- International corporate tax and cross-border business and investments
- Mergers, demergers, asset transfers and other business restructurings
- Taxation of real estate and real estate transactions
- Incentive schemes and earn-outs
- Change of generations in family owned businesses and investments

Background

Partner, Advokatfirmaet Haavind (2006-)

KPMG Law (1996-2006)

Ministry of Finance, Tax Law Department (1993-1996)

Cand. jur, University of Oslo (1993)

Semester at Hamline School of Law, St. Paul, Minnesota (1991)

Other

Espen Nordbø is co-author and co-editor of the textbook "Internasjonal skattekåndbok" (Universitetsforlaget 2002) and of the Norway sections of KPMG's publications "Leasing Taxation" and "Funds and Fund Management", and of Nexia's publication "The International Tax Handbook".

He has published several articles in Norwegian professional journals and magazines.

Chambers Europe refers that the firm's "leading lawyers include Espen Nordbø, who has "an exceptional understanding of business."" Legal 500 refers that "Espen Nordbø is 'very good at communicating complex tax points – also his invoices are sensible'.