

Erik Davidsen

Partner, advokat

T: +47 93 42 57 05

E: e.davidsen@haavind.no

Areas of expertise

Erik Davidsen is a partner in the business area Human Resources, a member of the practice group Human Resources, and head of the practice group Environmental Law

Practice

Erik Davidsen is specialised in the areas Human Resources and environmental law. He has 25 years experience as a lawyer with general business law activities. The last 10 years Erik Davidsen has particularly worked with:

- Employment law and Human Resources related questions.
- Whistle blowing, preliminary investigation and inquiries
- Conditions of work for managers, including employment contract, alteration and termination of the employment relationship
- Pension issues
- Protection of confidentiality and goodwill, including whistle blowing and supervision of employees
- Environment protection, planning – and regulation, pollution, including due diligence in connection with environmental questions.

Background

Partner, Haavind & Haga, now Advokatfirmaet Haavind (1988)

Haavind & Haga, now Advokatfirmaet Haavind (1983-)

Nordic Council of Ministers' secretariat (1979-83)

Ministry of the Environment, division of pollution cases (1976-79)

Cand. jur, UiO, (1976)

Other:

Member of the Norwegian Bar Association's standing committee for environmental law from (1997-2007, chairman 2005-2007). Various directorships.